

HIGH SPEED SLICER

BULK SLICE AND APPLY ONTO AN OVEN BELT OR CONVEYOR

COMMON FOOD APPLICATIONS

Bacon

Bread

Fresh Meats

The High Speed Slicer is ideal for food processors that need a high quality bulk slicer to precisely slice and apply directly onto an oven belt or conveyor. Our patented AccuBand® razor sharp, strong band blades cut through product cleanly and consistently. The High Speed's user-friendly operation and sanitation allow for fast and safe set-up, function selection and thorough cleaning.

- Slice and apply up to 400 strokes per minute, per lane
- Apply product on up to a 48" wide conveyor for bulk processing and cooking
- Adjustable speed capabilities and height casters allow simple integration with your production line
- Continuous product loading reduces downtime and increases output
- Sanitary design with easily removable parts allows for quick and thorough cleaning
- Disposable AccuBand® band blades provide optimal slice quality, consistency and yield while eliminating resharping and simplifying clean-up

With the High Speed, you get a big-time solution for a big operation.
